EDWARD M. LOTRIDGE

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW

1511 N. MAIN STREET

TULSA, OKLAHOMA

Sept. 28, '60.

H. C. Burleigh, M. D., C. M., Bath, Ontario.

Dear Doctor Burleigh:-

Thank you for your letter which gave me great pleasure. I was fortunate in meeting you at Albany. I hope you secured good information and from the way you applied yourself I know you deserved good fortune in your searches.

I shall outline here about what the Lotridge investigations I have made so far indicate. However, as yet it is not pinpointed. There are probably some errors:

1706-1722	Palatine settlements in America.
1722	Approximate birth of Robert Lodewyk
1744	Approximate date of marriage of Robert Lodewyk, born in approximately 1722 to Elizabeth whose children were William born approximately 1745 and in
1747	Robert who married Maria Weniger in 1768 and in
1769	Robert who married Sarah Smith in 1795.
1805	Cornelius, my great grandfather was born on a farm, the old Lotridge homestead, about three miles northwest of Fonda. Cornelius once owned the farm on which I was born, one and one half miles north and west of Fonda.
1830	Myndert, my grandfather born.
1854	William Suits Lotridge, my father was born.

Now the name Lodewyk or Loderich, they appear to have been more or less interchangeable, may seem a bit far fetched as having any connection with the present Lotridge. However, when it is considered that the German d is often pronounced like a t then it is apparent how nearly alike the soundings of the respective names are. There were two Lodewyks among the 1909 Palatine arrivals in this country, either one Antony or Henry could have been the father of the first Robert above mentioned. Church records in Loonenberg, now Athens, New York show the marriage of Robert and Elizabeth Lodewyck to have resulted in the births of William and Robert born in 1745 and 1747, respectively.

I should like to establish who was the first Lotridge pioneer in this country, from what place in Germany he came, his occupation in his country and other relative facts. The Lodewyks seem to have been in Greene County, also Columbia and Albany Counties and in New York City. I believe that some are set forth in the first or 1790 U. S. census. I am confident that the Robert and Elizabeth Lotridge mentioned are my ancestors, that they moved through Albany, perhaps, to the Mohawk Valley about 1750-1760.

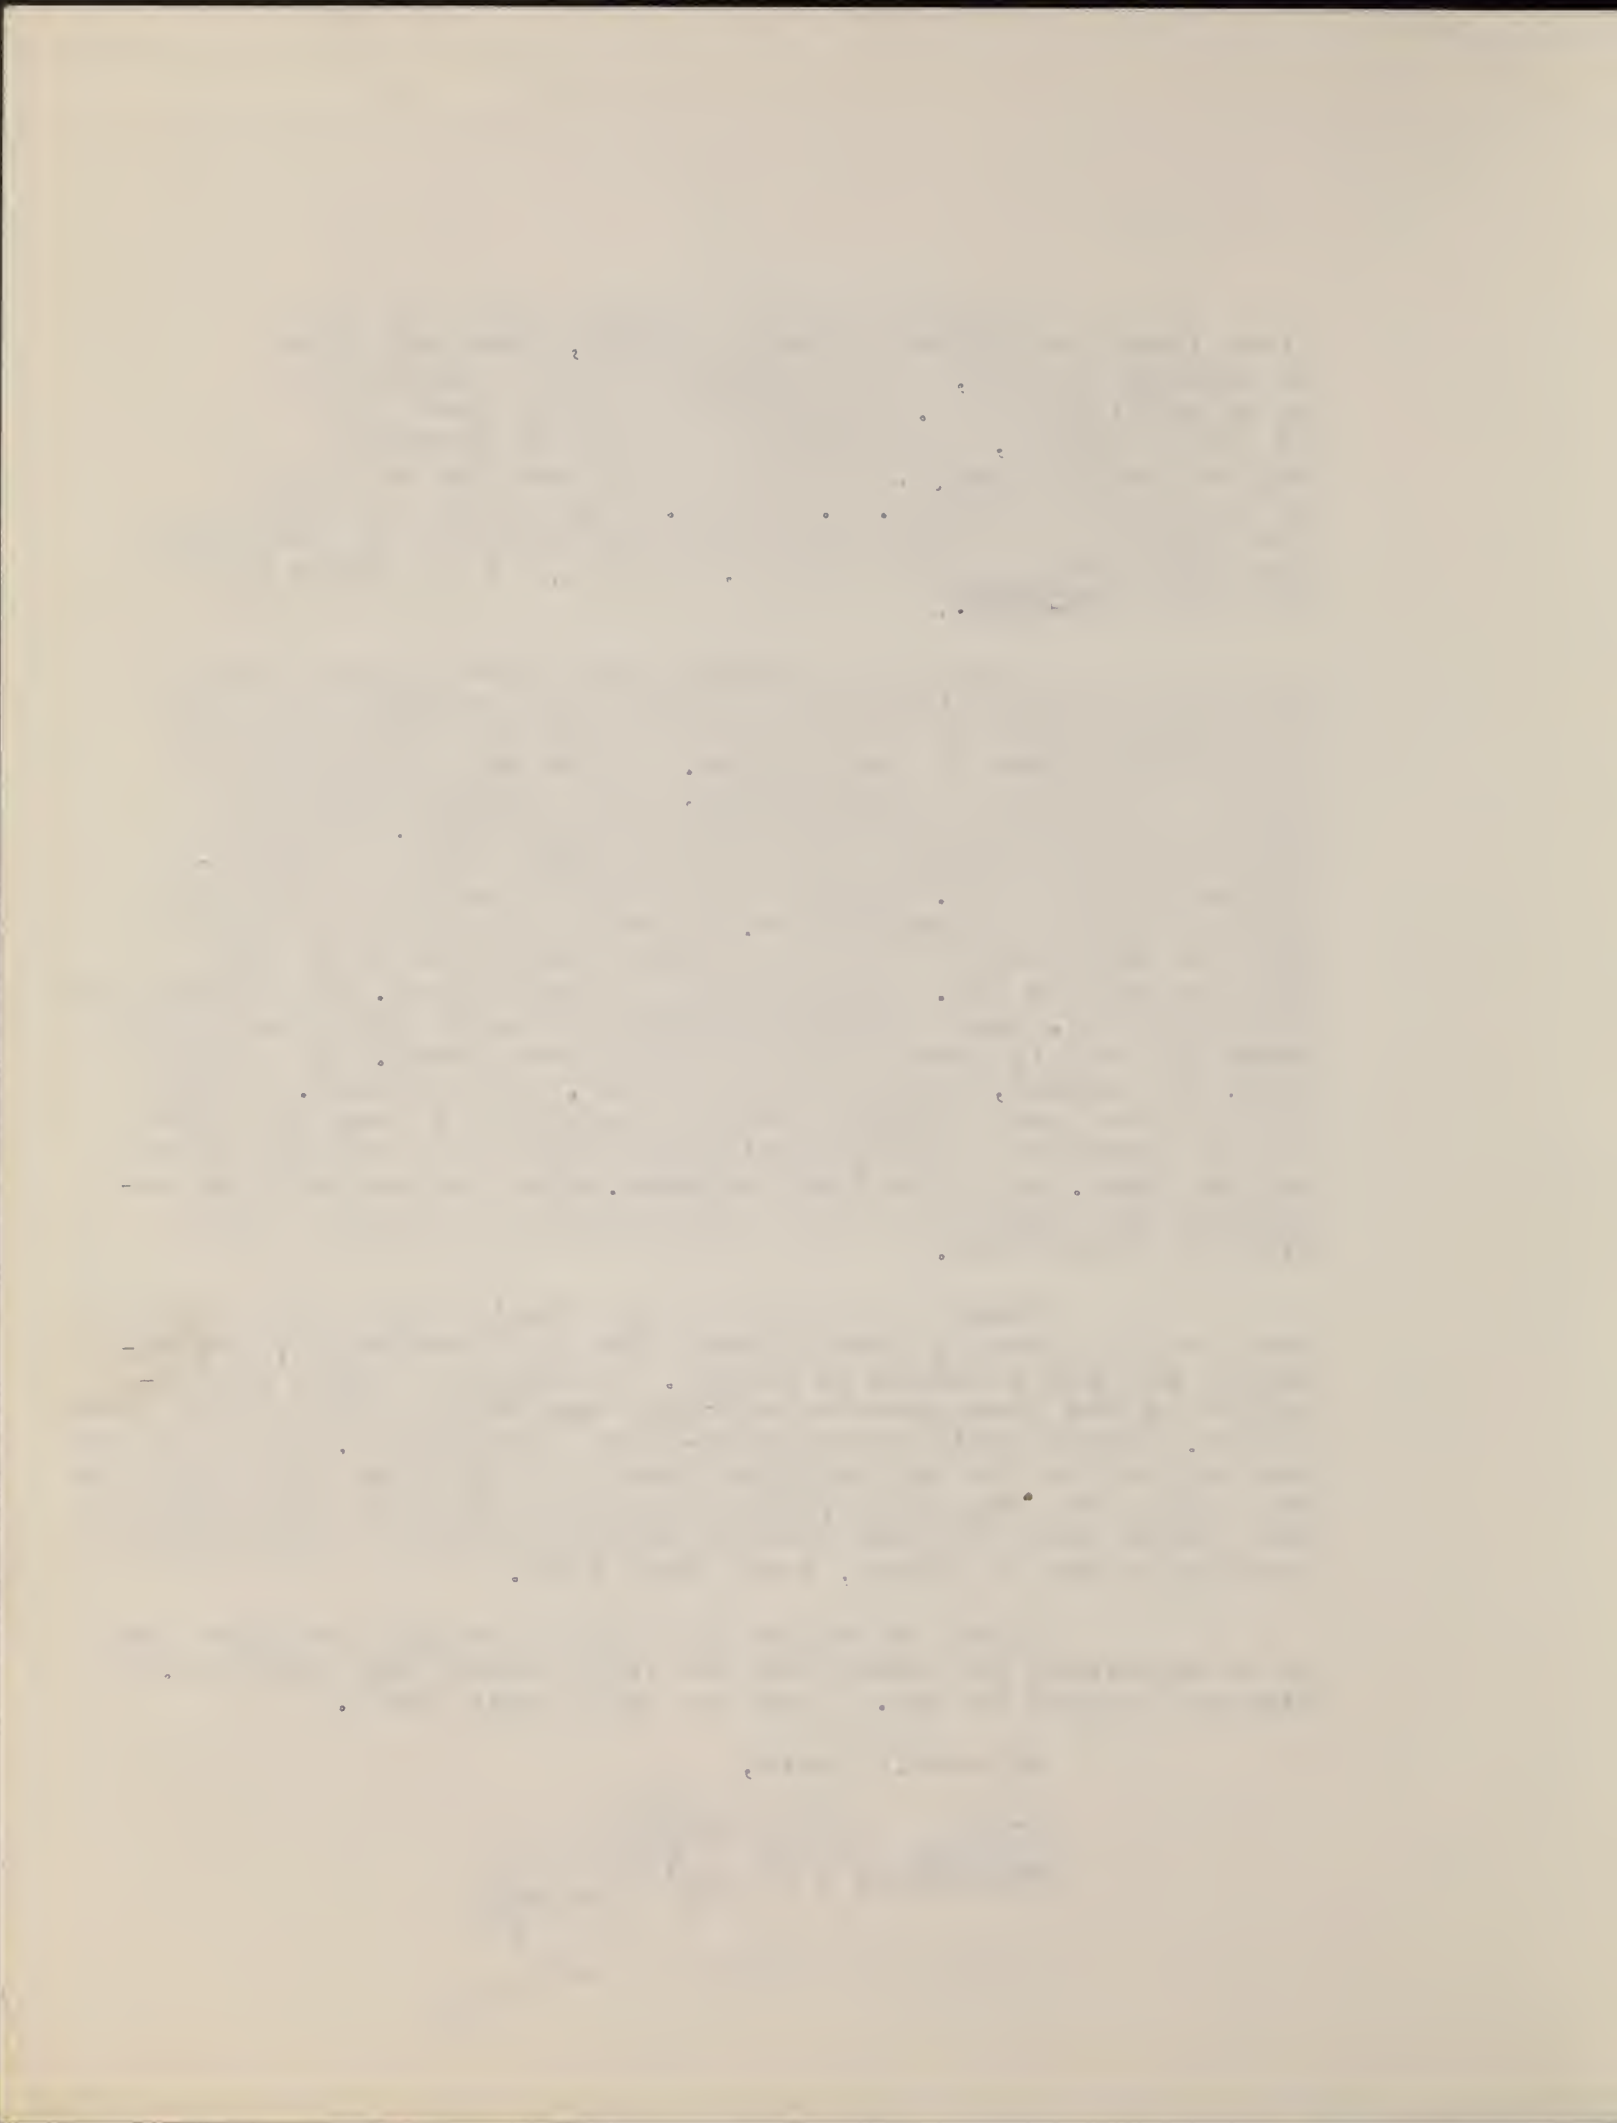

There was a Captain Robert Lotteridge, note how the name resembles Loderich when the d is pronounced as a t, and he has caused me more confusion than any other facet in my investigations of the records. I have been informed that he was a resident of Canajoharie, very closely associated with Sir William Johnson and Chief Joseph Brant, largely because he was a military man and his family was of some influence at the time. As you have noted he must have been a refugee during the Revolution. He could have been that Robert who was born in 1747 and his brother could have been that William in whom Rev. Duncan Fraser is interested. He may have been married twice, once to Maria Weniger and maybe again in Canada where his wife's name is said to have been Sarah. This would mean, if factual, that he had two sons, named Robert. I would like to have more definite facts regarding this man and maybe in the Canadian or British military records his family record may be found. As it is I am confused. Maybe you can help me regarding this phase and other information you may run across will be appreciated.

There is a story in the family that three brothers came to this country from Canada after the Revolution, two remained and one returned to Canada. The names of those who remained in New York State were Robert and George just as you have stated. Robert would be my great-great grandfather. He is the one who settled on the old Lotridge homestead to which reference has been made. The Robert Lotridge who was a tailor in the Johnstown area about whom you have written may have been the first Robert Lotridge above mentioned, born about 1722.

Thank you again for all the trouble you have gone to in gathering and reporting the information just received. My kindest regards to you. I hope we shall meet again.

Sincerely yours,

Edward M. Lotridge

Thursday Dec 13. /79.

Dear Dr Burling

When we returned home after our trip to the Maritimes re U.E.L. matters, your letter was waiting here.

I certainly appreciate all the time and trouble you took to prepare the information on the Lottudges. I was very glad to get the date of Capt. Robt.
Lottudge's death as I had not been able to pin point it before. Although I knew that Capt. Robt's sons Robert and George had returned to the States, I did not know what had become of them so I was very pleased to get the notes about Robert Jr's marriage to ^{Sarah} ~~Lucy~~ Smith in 1795 and their descendants ending with Edward M. Lottidge, your correspondent.

2.

I was a little confused when Edward Lottidge suggested that Capt. Robert Lottidge had married twice - once to Maria Meniger ~~or~~ in 1768 and again to Sarah Smith in 1795. However since Capt. Robt. was dead by 1790, it is clear that it was Robert Jr. who married Sarah in 1795 when Robert Jr. was approximately 26.

I was also interested in the old spelling and pronunciation of the name Lottidge.

Thank you again for sending on this information and I shall be glad to incorporate this in the history of the Lottidges. If by chance any other bits of information should come your way I would be pleased if you would send it my way.

Our best wishes for a healthy & happy
New Year

Elizabeth Ackman

P.S.

I just realized there was some question as to what happened to John Lottidge.

Of the four sons of Capt. Robert Lottidge, two - George and Robert b. 1769, returned to the States. ^{the other} John (1770-1812) and William (1775-1858) made application, as heirs of Capt. Lottidge, for land, in 1796. They remained in Canada.

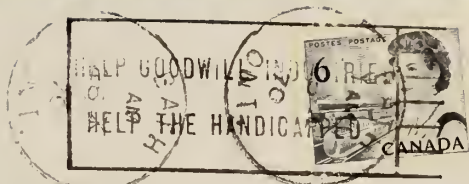

John Lottidge obtained land in Barton township near the Bay. This land is now occupied by Dominion Foundries & Steel Co. John Lottidge was master in Barton Lodge in 1802. He was married and had 8 children. He was killed ~~in the~~ while Captain of the 3rd Lincoln in repelling Col. Smyth's attack at St. Erie in 1812. He was well known in the early history of this area.

Dear Sir:-

Recalling your interest in Captain Lottridge of the Indian Dept. during Revolutionary War, I found an item a few weeks ago which should be of interest.

It is Letters of Administration of the Estate of Capt. Robert Lottridge, deceased, by his eldest son & heir, John Lottridge. The Captain died 6 Feb., 1791, intestate, in Upper Canada. This document is dated 15 Oct., 1791

This document is found in the Court of Probate, Osgoode Hall, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

I trust that your health is all that can be desired and that you are enjoying life

Sincerely

H. C. Burleigh

Dear Dr. Burleigh.

In our conversation at David Cory's home on Saturday last, you mentioned that you had information re the Lottidge family. I would appreciate having this information as I am trying to put together a history of this family. My paternal grandfather John Cummer, was the eldest son of Rachel Catherine Lottidge and Abram Lockman Cummer of Watford Ont.

Enclosed is a cheque for ten dollars.

Sincerely

Land Books of Ontario.

1. Land Board, Nassau District, 31st March, 1790.

The Board then proceeded to appoint Commissioners of the Roads, when the following persons were named:--

Robt. Lottridge, and others.

2. Land Board, Nassau District, 5th March, 1792.

Certain lots were conveyed to Robert Lottridge by certificate from the land board of Nassau.

3. Register of the Lots in the Townships of the District of Nassau.

Book No. 3

This Book received from Mr. Richard Natt--August 5th, 1795.

Township No. 1. Lot No. 19; Concession No. 3.

Notes and Descriptions. March 10th, 1790.

Captain Lottridge has taken 1000 acres of land back of Township No. 8, or rather upon the right of it, beginning where the Creek empties into the pond.

Memo: Captain Lottridge and Captain Bratt say they have taken possession of lands on the north side of the inlet prior to Mr. Jones' location for others.

4. June 29th, 1796.

The clerk having laid before the committee a letter to Your Excellency from the Acting Surveyor General with a copy of two assignments from Mr. A. Jones, Deputy Surveyor of the district of Nassau, together with a plan of Burton-Barton--and informed them it was Your Excellency's pleasure they should state their opinion what lots were conveyed to Robert Lottridge by certificate from the land board of Nassau dated the 5th of March, 1792.

6. July 12, 1796.

Heirs of Capt. Lottridge, Robert. Stating that their late father served as Captain in the Indian Department during the American War, that he located but a small portion of the lands allowed by His Majesty to officers of his rank, that even that portion is usurped by persons pretending claims which do not exist, praying to be heard before Council that their father's right may be asserted and that his proportion of land may be made up. To lie over until a Chief Justice arrives.

6. 21st July, 1796.

John and William Lottridge, heirs of the late Captain Lottridge. Stating that in their capacity as aforesaid they have a just claim and right to 200 acres of land near the town of Newark now in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Butler, and unjustly claimed by the heirs of the late Colonel Butler who in fact was himself but tenant at will of the said Capt. Robert Lottridge, that petitioners have entered a caveat against the emission of any deed or deeds for the said lands until their claim be audited in Council, and praying that a day may be assigned them to appear and be heard in the premises. Ordered that the proceedings respecting the lots prayed for are stopped until the claims of both parties can be heard in full Council.

7. 21st April, 1798.

William Lottridge. Praying for lands as the son of a captain reduced and a U. E. Loyalist. Recommended for 600 acres inclusive as a son of a captain if his father's name is on the U. E. List, but subject to the new regulations.

John Lottridge. Identical claim and disposition as for William, above.

8. 23rd April, 1798.

The heirs of Captain Lottridge. Praying for their father's military lands. Recommended that 3000 acres including former grants be granted to the widow and children of the late Captain Lottridge as tenants in common.

9. 15th June, 1798.

Laid before the board, the lands claimed before the commissioners for the county of Lincoln and allowed.

Claimant

Richard Beasley	lots 18, 19, 21,	concession 1	300 acres	in Barton Township
" 19	"	2	100 "	" "

original nominee---Robert Lottridge.

10. 10th July, 1798.

Richard Beasley. Praying to have the broken front~~l~~ prayed for granted to him of the lots which were formerly in dispute with the heirs of the late Captain Lottridge (and which is now amicably settled), he having made valuable improvements thereon. Recommended that the broken fronts prayed for be granted

Dear Doctor:-

Thank you for your very good letter and for the information and suggestions therein contained.

I am going to send for the Saturday issue of the Hartford, Conn., Times.

Some information I have from the Census Dept., at Ottawa, I shall be glad to send you if you think it would be of interest or benefit to you. This is information regarding Capt. Robert Lottridge.

I am in correspondence with Rev. Fraser of Johnstown, N. Y., as you know.
He speaks highly concerning you.

I am writing to the Leader-Republican newspaper of Gloversville, N. Y., for a report concerning the representative of the Sir William Johnson family who recently visited Gloversville and Johnstown. After receipt and reading I shall be glad to forward same to you.

Again I thank you and hope to hear from you and to see you soon. I shall probably be at Albany again next year.

Sincerely yours,

Edward M. Lotridge

I wish you had written more in detail about yourself and things in general.

Your letter is in my files in my genealogical department.

I do not make much progress with my researching concerning the Lotridges but I keep trying.

Probably you were a visitor again this year at the State Library at Albany.

Thank you for re-

P. S. After the revolutionary war, my great-great-great grandfather, Captain Lottridge, who was an United Empire Loyalist and a refugee at Niagara,
Canada, returned to his former home at Johnstown,
New York, to gather up his family who were staying with his father's family but two of his sons, Robert, who was my great-great grandfather, and George remained in the colony of New York. That is the information I have obtained since last contacting you.
